Angela Kachuyevski

Asst. Professor of Political Science
Department of Historical and Political Studies
Arcadia University

450 South Easton Road
Glenside, PA 19038
kachuyea@arcadia.edu

EDUCATION

Tufts University, The Fletcher School, Ph.D. 2006, MALD 1998
Dissertation: Evaluating Third Party Intervention in Estonia, Moldova and Ukraine: The Case for Multidimensional Prevention.
Directing Committee: Dr. Eileen Babbitt, Chair; Dr. Richard Shultz, Dr. Jeffrey Taliaferro.

The Ohio State University, BA 1992
Majors: International Studies, Eastern Europe concentration; Russian Language and Literature

Moscow State Linguistics University, August-December 1991
Intensive immersion program in Russian language

TEACHING COMPETENCIES

International Conflict Resolution: theories and case studies of negotiation, mediation, preventive action and comparative peace processes.
Third Party Intervention: theories and case studies of preventive diplomacy, peacekeeping, peacebuilding and peace enforcement.
International Security: theories and case studies of international security, cooperative security, deterrence and coercive diplomacy, non-traditional threats, regional security and international organizations.
International Politics/International Relations: international relations theory and diplomatic history.
Russia and Eastern Europe: foreign policy and regional politics.
U.S. Foreign Policy: theory, policy choice and diplomatic history.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Arcadia University, Department of Historical and Political Studies, Glenside, Pennsylvania
Assistant Professor of Political Science, 2007-Present
Courses: Introduction to International Law, Conflict Resolution in Deeply Divided Societies, Advanced Seminar in International Law, Introduction to Peace and Conflict Resolution, International Organizations in Dispute Resolution, Politics and Ethnic Conflict in Ukraine, Russian and Eastern European Politics, Political Science Senior Thesis Seminar, International Relations, Comparative Politics.

- Serve as Director of the Political Science Program 2011-present.
- Served as Assistant Director of the Graduate Program in International Peace and Conflict Resolution 2007-2011.
- Develop and teach graduate and undergraduate courses in international peace and conflict resolution and international relations more broadly.
- Supervise graduate student theses in peace and conflict resolution.
- Supervise undergraduate senior theses in political science.

Norwich University, School of Graduate Studies, Master of Arts in Diplomacy Program
Adjunct Professor 2006-Present
Courses: Military Intervention and Conflict Management in the International System, Theory and the International System

- Teach in an intensive, high quality online graduate program.
- Work closely with students to strengthen their writing and analytic skills.
- Assist the program by grading comprehensive exams and supervising student theses.

Tufts University, European Center, Talloires, France
Summer 2002-Present
International Relations in a Changing World

- Lead twenty five American high school students on a one-month study abroad program.
- Develop and teach an intensive university level introductory course in international relations.
- Work closely with students to improve study skills, writing skills, and critical analysis skills.
- Develop two crisis simulations to engage students in an extended exercise to apply the theories and lessons of history acquired in class to the management of real world challenges.

Saint Joseph's University, Department of Political Science, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Visiting Assistant Professor, 2006-2007
Courses: Introduction to Comparative Politics, Introduction to International Politics, Russian Politics, Model EU, International Conflict Management

- Developed and taught introductory and upper level courses in international and comparative politics.
- Supervised and led a simulation course on the European Union.

Tufts University, Department of Political Science, Medford, Massachusetts
Lecturer Fall 2000-Spring 2005
Courses: International Conflict Management, Soviet and Russian Foreign Policy, US Foreign Policy, Fieldwork in Politics

- Developed and taught courses on foreign policy and conflict management; organized active learning assignments, including crisis simulations and debates.
- Advised and mentored students.
- Served on three honors thesis committees.
- Supervised student work in the political science internship program.
- Supervised teaching assistants.

Boston College, Department of Political Science, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts
Lecturer Spring 2002-2004
Courses: International Conflict Management, International Security Studies, European Security

- Developed and taught three courses on international security and conflict management; organized active learning assignments, including crisis simulations and debates.

Tufts University, Department of Political Science, Medford Massachusetts
Fall 1999- 2002
Graduate Teaching Assistant: Introduction to International Relations, US Foreign Policy, Introduction to American Politics, Force, Strategy and Arms Control

- Promoted discussion of material covered in lecture and organized informal policy debates.
- Worked closely with students to improve study skills, writing skills, and critical analytical skills.
- Maintained web page for the course.
- Organized and conducted review sessions.
- Graded written assignments and exams.

Summer Institute on College Teaching, Center for Teaching Excellence, Tufts University
June-August 2000
Institute Fellow

- Completed an intensive program focused on improving skills for effective teaching.
- Mastered a variety of techniques to incorporate the use of technology in the classroom.
- Acquired a range of strategies to improve students' writing skills, and to increase the use of writing as a learning tool in the classroom.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Diplomacy and non-state actors; international negotiation and conflict resolution, particularly preventive diplomacy and internal conflict; conflict management, especially third-party intervention; peace processes, particularly in intractable and "frozen" conflicts; Russian foreign policy; US foreign policy; European security, especially NATO and the OSCE.

PUBLICATIONS/PRESENTATIONS

Book Chapters

"The Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe and its Role in Preventive Diplomacy" in European Security Institutions: Ready for the 21st Century? (Dulles, VA: Brassey's) 2000.

Book Reviews

"Sovereignty, Self-Determination and State Collapse: Reassessing Yugoslavia," The Fletcher Forum of World Affairs 32:2, Summer 2008.

Articles

"The Possibilities and Limitations of Preventive Action: The OSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities in Ukraine," solicited submission for a special issue of International Negotiation: A Journal of Theory and Practice, forthcoming December 2012.

"Bringing Theory to Life Through Field Study," International Studies Perspectives 12: 4, November 2011.

Policy Analyses

"Russia's Role in the Western Hemisphere: Head in the Future, Heart in the Past" prepared for L-3 MPRI, June 2010.

"Russian-Ukrainian Relations: the Culture of Politics" prepared for L-3 MPRI, August 2009.

" The Work of the High Commissioner in Ukraine", part of the Initiative on Conflict Prevention through Quiet Diplomacy: Evaluation of the Preventive Diplomacy Work of the High Commissioner on National Minorities of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, for The Center for Human Rights and Conflict Resolution at The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, April 2007.

"The Conflict Prevention Work of the International Peace and Prosperity Project in Guinea Bissau", prepared for internal use by project personnel and management, July 2007.

Works in Progress or Under Review

Books and Book Chapters

"'Structured, Focused' Comparison: Valuing the Utilization of Small-N Methods in the Study of Conflict Management," in Brown, Christopher and Lisa Samuels, eds. Going Beyond the Pale: Rethinking "Research Design" in International Relations, under review.

Peace through (Your Neighbor's) Weakness: Russia's Role in Regional Separatist Conflicts, manuscript in progress.

Articles

"Social Boundaries and Societal Security: A Framework for Analysis," under review at Cooperation and Conflict.

Presentations

"'Structured, Focused' Comparison: Valuing the Utilization of Small-N Methods in the Study of Conflict Management," International Studies Annual Conference in San Diego, April 1-3, 2012.

"Global Norms and Local Realities: The Politics of Minority Rights in Eastern Europe," International Studies 2011 Annual Conference in Montreal, March 15-19, 2011.

"Imagined Boundaries, Real Borders: Explaining Minority-Majority Conflict in Estonia and Israel," International Studies 2010 Annual Conference in New Orleans, February 16-20, 2010.

"Bringing Theory to Life through Field Study: Teaching Minority Rights in Ukraine," International Studies 2010 Annual Conference in New Orleans, February 16-20, 2010.

"Minority Discrimination and the Support for Political Violence: Lessons From Estonia and Israel," International Studies 2009 Annual Conference in New York, February 15-18, 2009.

"Evaluating Third Party Intervention in Estonia, Moldova and Ukraine: the Case for Multidimensional Prevention," International Studies Association Northeast 2008 Annual Conference in Baltimore, October 3-4, 2008.

"International Law and the Global War on Terrorism: Challenges Facing the Next President", Community Scholars Luncheon, Arcadia University, May 23, 2008.

"Seeking Solutions in Transdniestria: Looking Beyond Russia to the Challenges of "Undoing", 2008 Regional Policy Symposium on "Frozen Conflicts and Unrecognized States in Southeast Europe and Eurasia", implemented by the International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) and the Kennan Institute at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

"Avoiding State Fragmentation while Negotiating Sovereignty: Ukraine and Russia in Crimea", International Studies Association 2008 Annual Conference in San Francisco, March 26-29, 2008.

Panel Chair and Discussant, "United Nations: Future Issues", International Studies Association Northeast 2007 Annual Conference in Philadelphia, November 15-17, 2007.

"Questioning Preventive Diplomacy in Estonia: Thinking Beyond the State", International Studies Association Northeast 2006 Annual Conference in Boston, November 9-11, 2006.

"US Foreign Policy in the Persian Gulf: Options in Iraq and Global Consequences", Arlington High School, Arlington, MA, January 2003.

Interviews
Interviewed and quoted in Olivia Ward, "Can Discontent Loosen Putin's Grip on Russia?" Toronto Star, December 29, 2008.

Interviewed on background as an expert on Russian politics for WBUR's "On Point", 1 December 2006.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

Alliance for Peacebuilding, January-July 2007, Washington, DC
Consultant/ Case Study Researcher
Reducing Political Violence Action Group (RPVAG) in Guinea Bissau

Center for Human Rights and Conflict Resolution, The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, January-April 2007, Medford. Massachusetts
Consultant/ Case Study Researcher
Initiative on Conflict Prevention through Quiet Diplomacy: Evaluation of the Preventive Diplomacy Work of the High Commissioner on National Minorities of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe

Conflict Management Group, February-December 2000, Cambridge Massachusetts
Research Assistant
- Produced a literature review for a study on intractable conflict.
- Produced a comparative analysis of peace processes and models of peacebuilding and post-conflict reconciliation.
- Produced a literature review for a study on coexistence.

The Institute for Foreign Policy Analysis, June 1997-August 1999, Cambridge, Massachusetts
Earhart Fellow
- Researched and wrote a study of the conflict prevention role of the OSCE in Latvia and Estonia.
- Produced policy reports on Russian-Baltic relations.
- Contributed to a study on European Security Institutions.

INTERNATIONAL PROJECT ADMINISTRATION

Arthur Andersen, LLP, April 1994-July 1995, Moscow and St. Petersburg, Russia
Administrative Officer
- Coordinated the curriculum development, supervised the translation staff, and tracked the consistency and quality of translations of academic materials for a professional training institute.
- Produced weekly reports for US and Russian government agencies.

American Council of Teachers of Russian, 1992-1994, Russia

Moscow Director, Freedom Support Act Secondary School Program, August 1993- April 1994, Russia

- Managed an academic exchange program in Moscow and northwestern Russia.
- Supervised a staff of four American recruiters and four Russian assistants.
- Coordinated publicity and press relations for the Moscow area and maintained relations with the Ministry of Education.

Recruiter, Freedom Support Act Secondary School Program, January- August 1993, Moscow, Russia

- Recruited students from seventeen cities around Moscow to participate in an academic exchange program with the United States.
- Gave lectures to program candidates and their families about the U.S. system of education.
- Administered standardized language exams and conducted personal interviews with candidates.

AWARDS

Grants and Fellowships

- U.S. State Department Title VIII grant to participate in the 2008 Regional Policy Symposium on "Frozen Conflicts and Unrecognized States in Southeast Europe and Eurasia", implemented by the International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) and the Kennan Institute at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars
- International Security Studies Program Dissertation Fellowship, The Fletcher School 2000-2002
- Sarah Scaife Frank Rockwell Barnett Memorial Grant in International Security Studies, April 2000
- Earhart Foundation research fellowship 1997-1999, tuition support 1998
- Summer Institute on College Teaching Fellowship, Tufts University, June-August 2000

Teaching Awards

- Recipient of the First Annual Prize for the Best Graduate Teaching Assistant in Political Science, Tufts University 2003

Scholarships

- John Roche Scholar, 2003
- The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy 1998, 2000-2005
- American Council of Teachers of Russian August-December 1991

Honor Society

- Dobroye Slovo Slavic Honor Society 1991, 1992

LANGUAGES

Native English, fluent Russian, intermediate French